

Terms of Reference CSPCP Awards

CSPCP Lifetime Achievement Award

Summary

This award recognizes a lifetime of excellence in the field of palliative medicine, as determined by the CSPCP Board.

Recognizing	A lifetime of excellence in any of the following areas of palliative medicine: clinical, education, research, administration, international, contribution to the CSPCP.
Eligibility	Current member is substantively retired from their primary position, in good standing of the CSPCP, and has done service to CSPCP. Members of the current CSPCP Board are not eligible.
Nominated by	Members of the CSPCP Board.
Judging Committee	Immediate Past President of the CSPCP plus two other Past Presidents.
Recognition	Presentation at the annual CSPCP Advanced Learning in Palliative Medicine Conference.
Prize	Economy travel, accommodation, local transportation, and meals to attend the awards ceremony. Complimentary conference registration. Complimentary lifetime membership (Active, Class A). Commemorative plaque.
Funding	CSPCP
Frequency	Annual, at the discretion of the CSPCP Board and the Judging Committee.